NARRATIVE:

Jimenez, a documented member of the Virginia Street boys gang, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include manufacturing/possessing dangerous weapons, vehicle theft, felon in possession of a firearm, carry concealed weapon, possess narcotic controlled substance, and violations of parole. Jimenez, served three (3) years in state prison for manufacturing and possessing dangerous weapons. Jimenez, was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on May 26th, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2013 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Jimenez, qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of a firearm by felon is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang association, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
